ABOUT MOBILE AREA COUNCIL OF ENGINEERS (MACE):

The Mobile Area Council of Engineers (MACE) is a registered 501c3 organization with three main focuses: support the engineering program at the University of South Alabama through annual scholarships; recognize outstanding professionals within the engineering community; and facilitate the continuing engagement of engineering in Mobile. The MACE/Raburn Engineering Scholarship awards two University of South Alabama students an annual tuition award through the USA Endowment. These outstanding local students will be recognized at our annual banquet.

WHY SPONSOR MACE?

- Contribute to MACE Engineering Scholarship Fund at University of South Alabama
- Opportunity to connect with well-known, highly visible engineering associates
- Recognition at awards banquet
- Inclusion in media opportunities
- Employee event participation – build employee morale and teamwork
- Build brand
- Cross-promotion and networking with other sponsors
- Visible and valuable way to give back to the local engineering community
